FOREWORD

Our aim from the beginning to the end of this annual has been to publish a book of personal interest not only to the graduating class but to the rest of the students as well. Our theme is simply "This Year at Grossmont," and, if in future years the memory of high school days, activities, and friendships are reflected by this annual, we have fulfilled our purpose. We have enjoyed the privilege of representing our class in the presentation of this nineteen fifty edition of El Requerdo. We hope we have given the graduates a fitting remembrance of their high school days.

We take pride in dedicating the 1950 El Recuerdo to Eva McCarthy Quicksall. Her interest in others, her participation in many activities, her refreshing personality and remarkable way as a teacher, have won the hearts of her associates and students.

Eva Quicksall has been active in both the drama and English departments at Grossmont. She helped create our Christmas Pageant and has been a part of it every year. She is co-sponsor to The Moonsweepers and is active in many community organizations.

We shall always remember her as a sincere friend and inspiring teacher. Although she has taught at Grossmont many years, her classes are alive with new interest—her sparkling wit and originality are everlasting. She has the rare gift of humanizing literature and vitalizing our everyday experiences which make learning pleasureable.

THE ANNUAL STAFF

Best wishes to a real cute girl. I have enjoyed knowing you. Good luck in G. H. S.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. LEWIS F. SMITH

Mr. Smith, our popular principal, takes an active part in both faculty and student affairs. His leadership, valuable advice, fine sportsmanship and friendliness are an inspiration to all Grossmonters. We are indeed fortunate to have such a wonderful principal.

Dear Alpha:
I wish you all the success in the world in life. The world of tomorrow needs more of your type.
C. E. Secrest

MR. HAROLD HUGHES

Serving as everything from architect to bus schedule maker, Mr. Hughes, our vice principal is kept on the go. Even though he is one of the busiest men at Grossmont, Mr. Hughes always has time to help one and all.

MR. BENTON HART

Whom do the counselors and teachers take their troubles to? To Mr. Hart. Although he carries the burdens of Grossmont on his shoulders, Mr. Hart always has a cheerful smile.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Members of the Board of Trustees have given their time and hard work to the service of our school—receiving no pay—little recognition — lots of grief — they have controlled Grossmont's purse-strings and apportioned the school budget wisely throughout the year. They are Clarence Foster, President; Claude Beagel, clerk; Rexford Hall, Lester Freeman, and Conrad Cooper.

OFFICE STAFFS

ATTENDANCE OFFICE

A constant stream of traffic runs its way into the attendance office where "Tommy" Gould, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. Bogle, and Mrs. Pittman make the master absence list and keep all attendance records. A friendly word and quick service are given all Foothillers who come here.

BUSINESS OFFICE

In the business office we find Mrs. Sears, Mrs. Burns, Mr. Ahern, and Mrs. LeMasters who keep the financial accounts and supervise the business proceedings and countless other jobs. Mrs. Sears is Mr. Smith's secretary and is also secretary for the board of trustees.

COUNSELORS

"Hello, Joe? Got a problem? Why not take it to your counselor?" Mrs. Fitch greets the troubled or unhappy with a smile and directs each pupil to his class counselor.

RECEPTION OFFICE

Busy indeed is Mrs. Eldridge, running the switchboard, compiling and editing the daily bulletin, answering Grossmonters' questions at every turn and receiving visitors to our school.

CUSTODIANS AND YARD WORKERS

Attractive school grounds and buildings are the proof of our janitors' and yard workers' efficiency. F. Baker, R. Burns, M. Echeverri, H. Messinger, L. Katz, C. Miller, A. Nelson, C. Newell, H. Pittman, G. Preisser, G. Salazar, G. Snyder, R. Steers, J. Toynton, D. Velman, A. Walker and J. Woolley.

BUS DRIVERS

Transporting us from home to school and back again in everything from "rattle traps" to "smooth jobies" is the job of our bus drivers.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

MISS KELLY

LIBRARY

Very happy in her new surroundings is Miss Lois Kelly, our librarian. She cheerfully shows all book worms where to find what they need for classes and helps them select their reading material.

The student assistants ably assist Miss Kelly, learn how to file, and catalog and care for books.

CAFETERIA

The cafeteria staff handles the big job of keeping hungry Grossmonters fed. "Mom" Barnett, Lilly Bye, Rita Cota, Rose McCray, Anne Leerskov, and Hazel Walker are the cooks who put out the good spaghetti, stew, pie, cup cakes and other dishes. Students lending a hand are Darlene Lynas, Pamela Pomeroy, Oscar Foster, Richard Funk, Shirley Russell, Gloria Hoch, and Virginia Lansdowne.

NURSES

Feel beat? Have a broken arm? Any injured or ailing Grossmonter can find aid and sympathy in the nurses, Mrs. Eddie Parvin and Miss Helen Sheppard. Laura Bell and Grace Maddox are the student helpers pictured here.

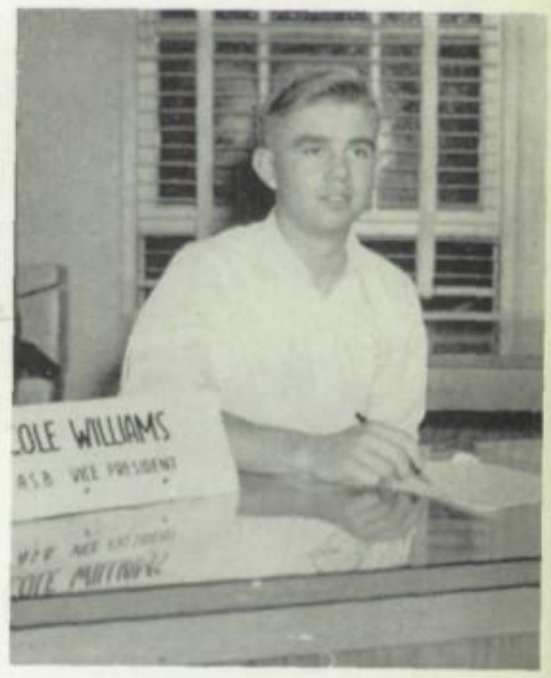
COMMISSION

COLE WILLIAMS
Vice-President



LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT

The Upper House of Legislators is the newest branch of our student government. Organized this year, it is composed of the class officers commissioners of Girls' and Boys' activities, and representatives from the Inter-club council. Lewis Accord presides over the Upper House, Grossmont's "Senate." He is assisted by Martin Beck, vice-president; Barbara Elston, secretary, and Le Roy Cooper, parliamentarian.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The lower and most representative body of the legislative branch of our student government is the Student Council. It is composed of a representative from each second period class. Cole Williams, A.S.B. vice president, presided over this law making body. Helping Cole were Johnny Hancock, vice president of the student council; Barbara Smith, secretary; and Jim McDermott, parliamentarian.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT

STUDENT COURT

The Student Court has a two fold purpose: first, to discipline; and second, to promote school spirit. Carol Settles, the Chief Justice, presided at hearings and rendered judgment. Representatives from each class served as a jury to decide the guilt or innocence of the accused. Included in this group were Pat Sheehan, Peg Williams, Sue Smith, Jackie Taylor, Bud Fuller, Lynette Larson, and Gene Larson. Many others served as bailiffs, clerks, prosecuting attorneys, and defense lawyers. Bailiffs were: Jerry Pixton, Noel Mickelson, Niels Christiansen, Louis Sonka, Nancy Hunsberger was clerk.

INTER CLUB COUNCIL

The Inter Club Council coordinates the activities of all school clubs. Each club sends a representative to the council where club problems and entrance of new clubs are discussed. This year, as a service to the clubs, the I.C.C. sponsored the Cuyamaca Conference. Don Malloy is president; Bob Gibson, vice president; and Nancy Kirwin is the secretary.

TICKET SQUAD

A sea of eager faces and waving tickets was what the ticket squad faced at every game this year. They sold and collected tickets at all A.S.B. functions. Many thanks to Barbara Camillo, and her helpers, for a hard job well done.

CARD TRICKS

"Come on you guys, let's all put them up at once—1, 2, 3." It was loads of work for Sue Sheare and her helpers, but the card tricks at the football games were really great.

COMMISSIONERS ASSISTANTS

Our '49-'50 Commission was very lucky to have had such an active group of assistants. These hard working people make agendas, write notes, and help the commissioners in many other ways.

FRESHMEN

MISS PROSSER

It is a difficult task to solve the problems of the Freshman because he is still new and unsettled. It requires personal interest, sympathy, understanding, and experience. Miss Ethel Prosser, freshman counselor, has all these attributes and many more.

OFFICERS AND ADVISORS

The Freshmen—Grossmont's youngest—have already made themselves an important part of our student body. Mrs. Finalle and Mr. Lewis, class advisors, really did a fine job helping the class to organize itself. The officers are Teddy Seikman, president; Dick Barnes, vice president; Sally Hughes, secretary; and Darlene Greenig, treasurer. These frosh should make a peppy sophomore class, world-wise juniors, and very successful seniors.

SOPHOMORES

MR. CORNELIUS

Every sophomore takes his troubles to the office of cheerful, popular John Cornelius, sophomore counselor, and each one leaves a little less confused and worried and a little more confident that school isn't so bad after all.

"Best of luck to a swell girl. Hope to see you next year. Shirley Herder

Best of luck and Success, Dyce

The Sophomores spend the first days of school making life interesting for the Freshmen and the rest of the year earnesstly preparing to become upperclassmen. The principal activity of this class was the "Big Bounce," a successful dance given in honor of the basketball teams. Officers were Jack Campbell, president; Sandra Murray, vice president; and Lois Farr, secretary-treasurer. Advisors were Miss Patrick and Mr. Morrell.

PROM

PROM COMMITTEE

OFFICERS and ADVISORS

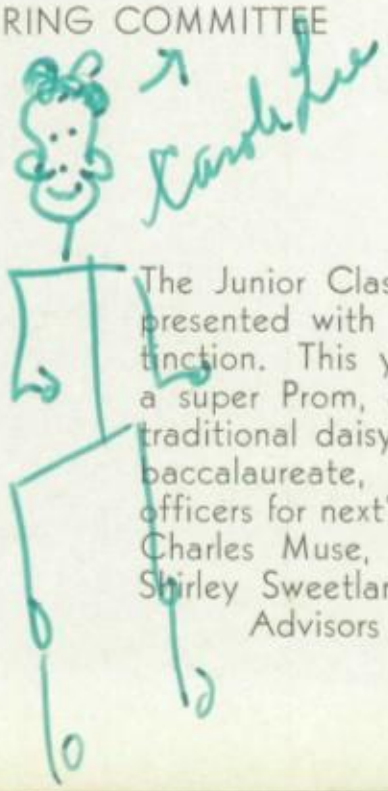
MISS PETERS

When juniors need help with their problems, either personal or scholastic, Miss Ruth Elizabeth Peters, junior counselor, provides a willing ear and a helping hand. She is indeed an honored guide to all who seek her advice.

RING COMMITTEE



JUNIORS

The Junior Class assumes specific duties and is always presented with many opportunities for service and distinction. This year's Juniors entertained the Seniors at a super Prom, assisted at graduation by providing the traditional daisy chain, ushered for both graduation and baccalaureate, and worked hard to help select good officers for next's years student body. Class officers were Charles Muse, president; Betty Lyons, vice president; Shirley Sweetland, secretary; and Joan Hoss, treasurer. Advisors were Mrs. Brown and Mr. Shields.

SENIORS

MR. JONES

In our senior year our problems suddenly become more immediate and pressing. Mr. William Jones, senior counselor, considers each problem with intelligence and understanding, and in his calm, unhurried manner smooths the way toward graduation.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Cooperation by loyal class members, unceasing effort of the officers, and the ever willing assistance of the advisors all contributed to the outstanding success of this year's Senior class. Sweaters with appropriate insignia were chosen early in the year. Proceeds from the class play, "Our Town," were used for the class gift. An innovation this year was the Senior Dinner Dance at the Hotel San Diego

SWEATER COMMITTEE

DANCE COMMITTEE

in March, and tradition was followed when all class members frolicked at Ditch Day. Baccalaureate services and Graduation will complete this year, but the memories will linger on. Lewis Accord, Martin Beck, Barbara Elston, and Barbara Otte were the class officers. The advisors were Miss Gibson and Mr. Cordy.

VOCAL MUSIC

Our first rate vocal music department is famous for its fine music. These crooners keep busy by giving programs for many groups and participating in music contests. Mrs. Donahue and Mrs. Evans lead these vocalists. In addition to school fame, our Red Robed Grossmonters are known all over the State.

OUR ORCHESTRA

"The best . . . the most pleasing music" . . . That's the motto of our fine orchestra. The orchestra, composed of all four grades of musicians, know what they're playing and play it. They do us proud at contests, the Christmas Pageant, Baccalaureate, and their Spring Concert.

LIGHT CREW

MR. RAYMOND KNISS
Director

DRAMA

The ever-helpful stage, light, and sound crews can certainly be called Grossmont's unsung heroes. It would take a math whiz to figure the hours these boys are on the job. If you had sharp peepers you saw them at all dances and on the stage during every presentation, GHS's or otherwise.

SENIOR PLAY

As we go to press preparations are being made for the Senior Play. The play is Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" and the cast includes Lewis Accord, Gail Oates, Charles Henry, Art Love, Kathleen Walker, Mike Fales, Sarah Longman, Carol Rhineheart, Llynn Lampugh, Joyce Mineah, Leanne Shivley, Edward Grimes, Leroy Schimer, Leroy Hewitt, Robert Thompson, David Plutachx, James Howarth, and Stanley Smith. "Our Town" is under the direction of Mr. Kniss. This play is a real challenge to the cast, the crews, and the director, but if the success of past plays is indicative, "Our Town" will be a big success.

A.S.B. PLAY

Kaufman and Hart's farce "George Washington Slept Here" was this year's A.S.B. Play. It was well received at all four performances and provided a good evening of entertainment for all witnessing it. The cast included Wayne Bender, Charles Miller, Nancy Myers, Beverly Woodword, Lloyd Jackson, Pat Fernandez, Kathleen Walker, Shelia Guant, Gary Tolley, Carol Rhineheart, Paul Goforth, Bob Swearengin, Nance West, and Lois Hacker. Gordon Austin was the stage manager, and Juanita White held the book. The play was under the direction of Mr. Raymond Kniss.

SHORT STORY CONTESTANTS 88

The big event for first year speakers is the short story contest. This year the theme was fairy tales and Paul Kirinch won the contest. Pictured are finalists Joanne Riley, Barbara Alesch, Betty Tyschen, Carol Kans, and Paul Kirinch.

MR. GEORGE DUBOW

INTER SCHOOL SPEECH CONTESTANTS

We're proud of our Grossmont speakers. Representing us at the State College, Redlands, American Legion, Knights of Pythius, Native Sons and daughters, and John Marshall speech contestants were Sarah Longman, Beverly Long, Ed Gual, Martin Beck, John Jenson, Pat Ferdandez, Susan Smith, Rosemary Rice, Carol Burner, Mike Tuve, Leroy Cooper, Anne Odin, and Lewis Accord.

MR. ROSS WALLIS

ART

Our Art Department enables pupils to work in water color and oils, design clothes, plan homes and study Art in all its phases, past and present. The Crafts Department is active throughout the year creating many leather and metal works with original pattern and design, moulding clay, glazing, and making things in plastic.

Seen snapping pictures all over the campus are members of Mr. Parker's photography classes. Really great were the pictures taken by these shutter bugs and sent to the annual photography contests.

SCIENCE

Beakers, bodies, bugs, and batteries are discussed in our science classes. All would-be scientists get preparation and practice for things that lie ahead. Practical knowledge and techniques are also stressed. It's smart to be able to recognize a crustacean, to eat the basic seven, be able to make soap and sulphuric smells, and to know why a car starts.

ENGLISH

This here section of the El Recuerdo is dedicated to the English Department who have spent many a long hour learning the students of Grossmont to speak corrected English. We all appreciated what they have did for your ever growing vocabulary and grammar usage. We will try to do better in the future years to come. Don't never think we didn't appreciate it neither!

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The Industrial Arts Department gives boys a chance to work with their hands and develop skills in such activities as mechanical drawing, metal craft, wood craft, auto shop, and farm shop. Here many real life problems are diagnosed and solved.

AGRICULTURE

Grossmont's fine agriculture department has won statewide recognition. Boys trained by Mr. Dyer, Mr. Kaler, and Mr. Russell brought home honors in judging, raising, and showing stock as well as other agriculture activities. This department looks forward to greatly expanded facilities at the new plant in El Cajon.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the G.A.A. is to "promote social and athletic activities for all girls and to foster the highest ideals of sportsmanship." These athletes, led by Lila Clark, president, Judy Rasmussen, vice president, Marjorie Mozier, secretary, and Carol Burner, treasurer, sponsored volleyball, softball, and basketball playoffs, had a banquet with their mothers, put on a white elephant and candy sale, and gave a spring play day for all county high schools.

GIRLS' TENNIS CLUB

These enthusiastic netters, led by Leanne Shively, president, Gail Chamberlain, vice president, Pat Hiscok, secretary-treasurer, kept busy by participating in the Ink and University Heights Playground tournaments, made up tennis teams to play other schools, and co-sponsored the Racquet Romp. Membership is invitational on recognition of tennis ability. Their sponsor is Miss Jean Creelman.

CARNIVAL

This year's writing class created a new Grossmont publication, the "Carnival." The "Carnival" contained poems, essays, stories, and cartoons by Grossmont authors. Lynn Lampugh and Lois Hacker were editors of the literary magazine. Mr. James Dewey was the advisor.

ALUMNI NEWS LETTER

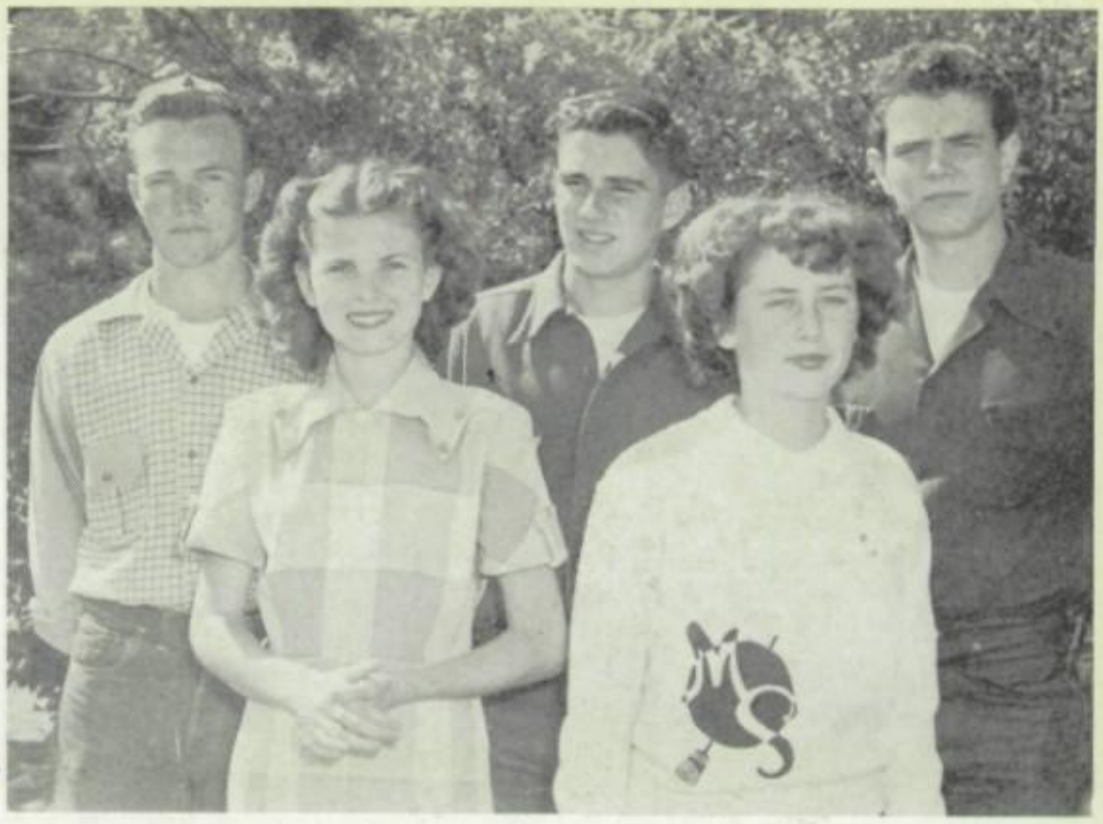
Grossmont Alumni keep in touch with their friends and the doings of their Alma Mater through the Alumni News Letter. This publication is under the direction of Sammie Dunham, commissioner of records, and is edited by Gloria Eaton.

ATHLETIC PROGRAM STAFF

Working hard making flashy programs for all the football games were Dick Plum and Art Love.

NEWS BUREAU

The News Bureau staff has done a very fine job in the upgrade of journalistic endeavor. With its chief aim of boosting Grossmont and presenting the news accurately and completely, this staff has sent out items to the local papers each week during the school year.



Vicki;
I've really had a lot of fun with you this year. You're one of the sweetest, cutest girls I know. Hope we have just as much fun next year, or more.
Best of everything (and I mean it. I'm not just filling up space!) for next year in some of my classes. Have a nice summer.
Sincerely;

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

Once a year Grossmonters cease the hustle and bustle of their daily lives and contribute to one of Grossmont's finest traditions, the Christmas Pageant. For over twenty years our Christmas Pageant has inspired all those witnessing and participating in it. The pageant has never been written down. It is remembered in the minds and hearts of those who have helped with it and is passed on by them to the new directors.

Mr. Raymond Kniss was the general director of this year's pageant. Miss Beulah Shriver instructed the feast scene participants and the madonna. Mrs. Quicksall directed the tableaux. The speakers were coached by Mr. John Cornelius and Mr. Kniss. Miss Mary Attkinson was in charge of the candlebearers and Miss Lucille Halwick taught the dancers. Music was under the direction of Mrs. Merle C. Donahue and Mr. Harold G. Lutz.

The pageant includes three main parts. Following the orchestral overture is the feast scene which is laid in the castle of a lord and lady. It shows many of Christmas' merriest traditions — the bringing of the yule log, toasting, singing, and dancing. As the clock chimes twelve, the merriment ceases and all the feasters leave to go to the church.

"Oh Holy Night" provides the musical background for the beautiful candlelight procession from the back of the auditorium to the madonna's feet. There the twelve candlebearers kneel while the celestial choir sings a tribute to the Madonna.

The Christmas story is told in the third scene by means of Bible readings, carols and tableaux.

The Red Robed Choir's recessional with organ and orchestral accompaniment brings the pageant, Grossmont's gift to the community, to a magnificent close.

COACH BOGLE

VARSITY FOOTBALL

This year's varsity football team, coached by Lee Bogle and Ken Maynard, had a 50-50 season, winning half of their games and losing half.

Among their victories was a 32-7 triumph over Saint Augustine and a thrilling 6-2 victory over long rivaled Sweetwater.

Co-captains Don Sweetland and Gilbert Bonnilla were respected by their teammates for the leadership in representing the team both on and off the gridiron.

Harold Norris and Ray Fackrell were honored by being chosen on the second string All-Coast team and Duane Jackson, Charles Hale, and Jay Harris earned honorable mention.

Harold Norris and Ray Fackrell were also chosen as most valuable backfield and lineman on the team, respectively, while Chuck Hale was chosen the most improved player.

Named by Coach John Hancock as the best J.V. team he has coached while at Grossmont, the '49 squad lost only one game in ten starts, and that, a 6-0 defeat at the hands of Kearny, was avenged later in the campaign.

This team, which will be stepping up in the varsity's shoes in 1950, will be counted upon heavily to launch Grossmont successfully into the new City Prep League, and such names as Humphrey, Brown, Silva, Molund and Kodis are sure to stand out.

COACH CHAPLIN

Coach Ralph Chaplin led this year's varsity cagers through his fifth season of good basketball.

Although they didn't have such a good win-loss record, the team was better than average, beating San Diego and losing to the championship Compton Tarbabes by only one point.

This year's team was led by high scoring P hil Embleton who led the league in scoring for the second straight year by bucketing 157 points in 10 games. Phil was a unanimous choice on the All-Coast Team and the second string S.C.I.F. at center position. He was also presented the Funk Trophy.

Lloyd Rust and Darrell Jurling were honored as co-captains and received honorable mention on the All-Coast Team, while Lloyd was chosen most valuable player on the team.

Ray Preston, Bob Rand, and Bob Whitebread will be back next year to add a lot of experience to the team.

The Foothiller Bees rebounded from a last place finish in the Coast League in 1949 to capture the third spot in the 1950 standings. Coach Hancock's charges rang up a six won and four loss record while displaying a smooth running offensive and defensive attack, led by such stalwarts as "Chuck" Opp, Bob Carpenter, and Manuel Byrd.

The leading scorer on the quintet was Opp, who also snared a first string berth on the All - League team. Carpenter made second string All-Coast and was named team captain, while Byrd gained the most valuable player award and received All-League honorable mention. Also rounding out the top five on the '50 team were Marty Bouton and Paul Sutton.

CEE'S BASKETBALL

Grossmont's "mighty midgets" had another very successful year. Under the able leadership of Coach Maynard they won the greater portion of their games and played heads-up ball. They entered into basketball tournaments and fared well against some stiff competition. We are looking forward to some fine basketball from these boys in the next few years on the varsity and Bee teams.

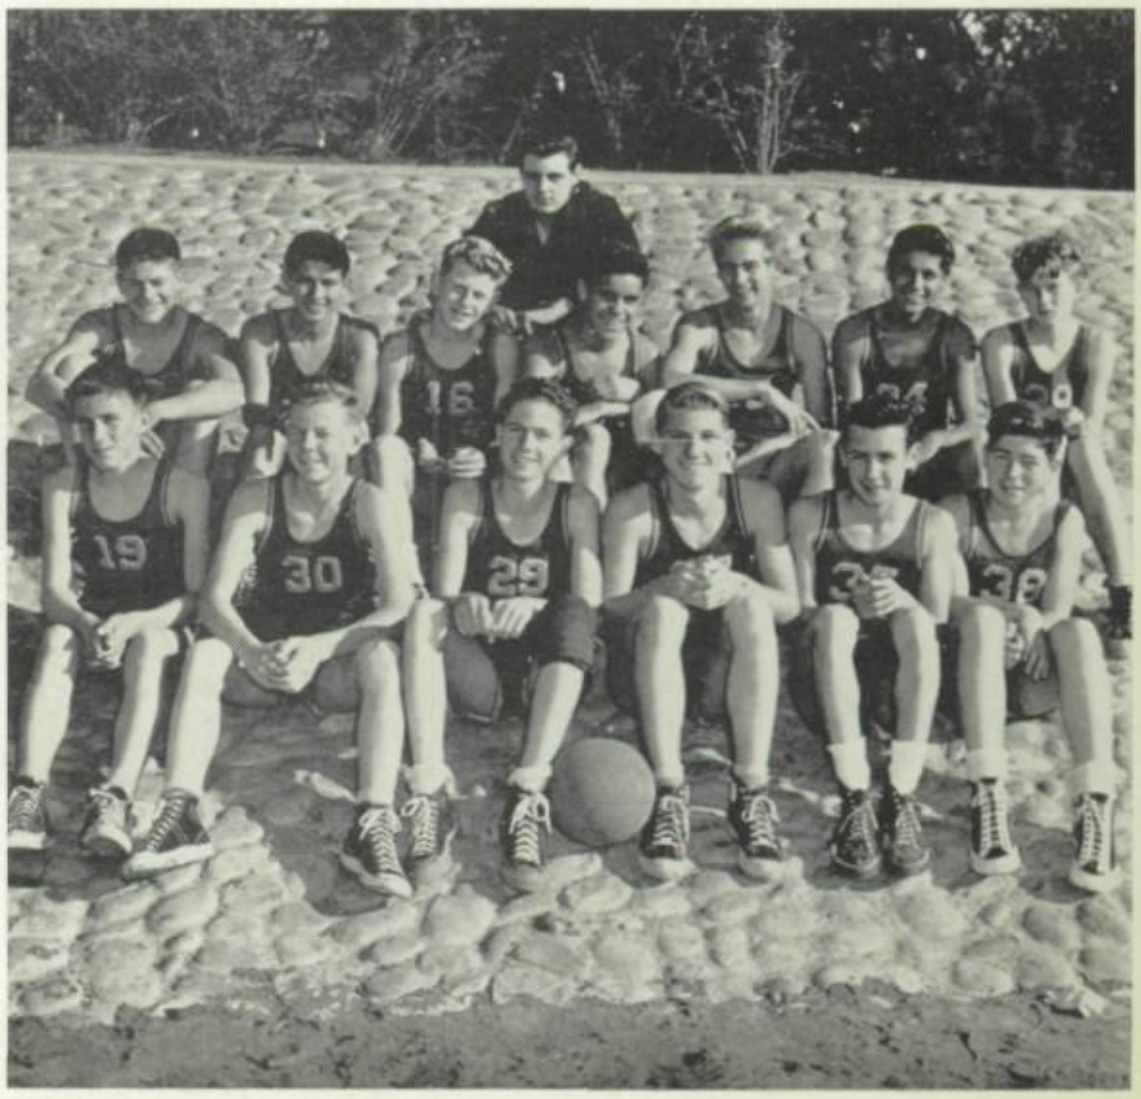
DEE'S BASKETBALL



VARSITY BASEBALL

COACH HANCOCK

Boasting a strong infield and mound corps, but a rather inexperienced outfield, Grossmont's 1950 diamond crew was built around such returning veterans as Jay Harris, Bob Rand, Ray Preston, Dick Priest and Don Lenardi.

Although not expected to set the world on fire while facing such league competition as Compton, Hoover, and San Diego High powerhouses, the Foothillers gained much prestige and respect from their opponents with an early season victory over league-favorite San Diego and by copping the consolation crown in the Pomona Tournament.

Best of luck to a fine track team

VARSITY TRACKSTERS

COACH MASHIN

Head track coach, Jack Mashin, has always been noted for having a strong track squad and this year's teams were no exceptions.

Being especially strong in the field events, the Foothillers swept the San Diego Relays in all three classes and placed very high in the Long Beach Relays, Huntington Beach Relays, Southern California Interscholastic Federation meet, and even garnered a few points in the State meet.

The only dual meet loss was to a stronger San Diego team by four points, who later went on to win the Coast League Championship.

Harold Norris was the individual star of the team, having a record of never being beaten in high school competition. At the time this annual went to press, Norris has hit about 59 feet and is well on his way to breaking the State shotput record of 59 feet 11 inches.

Other varsity stars of the 1950 team were Charles Hale in the high jump with a leap of 6 feet 2¼ inches. Floyd Hanson in the pole vault with a mark of 12 feet 6 inches.

Allen Archard was the all-around man of the team, holding the school records in both hurdle races and having the best mark in the broad jump for the year.

Kenny Brown was counted on very heavily when it came to getting points in middle distance races. John Hancock, Mike Martin, Dick Hill, and Charles Bruson held donw the sprinting department.

'B' TEAM

This year's B track team missed having a perfect record by one point, as they lost a thriller to John Muir by a 47-48 score.

The team was loaded with returning lettermen and a host of boys up from the last year's cee team.

Three of the outstanding boys were seniors, Jack Eaton, Dick Judd and Charles Henry, who all broke school records. Eaton's record came in pole vault with a leap of 12'1⅝", registered in a S.C.I.F. meet—Dick Judd broke the 10-pound shot-put record with a toss of 51'5", and Charles Henry clipped one-tenth of a second off the 70-yard high hurdles with a 9.1 seconds time.

Not to be overlooked was the fine running of Dick Winterow in the 660 and 1320, the sprinting of Frank Padilla in 100, 220 and relay, and the high-jumping of Freshman Douglas Durbin.

Winning the League Championship and going through the season without a single defeat was nothing new to the Grossmont mighty midgets as this feat was accomplished for the eighth year in a row.

One of the most outstanding boys on the team was Dick Barns, who tossed the shot-put and broad jumped. Other stars of the team were Bill Terry in the pole vault, Alvarez in the 660 and Streibe, in the 100-yard dash.

'C' TEAM

BOYS' TENNIS SQUAD

Dear Dickie -
I want to wish you all the joy and happiness in the world. I have really enjoyed knowing you this year -
See ya next year -
Love Mc Guire

COACH BARNETT

Depending heavily on sophomore and junior players to replace the many seniors of last year's strong team, Coach Walter Barnett has been well pleased with the fine showing of Grossmont's Tennis Team in Coast League and tournament play. Although lacking in any outstanding individual players, long hours of practice and the development of a winning spirit has placed the team in the position of a strong contender for the league championship.

In the Ink Trophy Tournament, Grossmont placed five players in the top sixteen, three of these being very promising sophomores who scored upsets of seeded players in reaching this prominent position.

Prospects for the future appear very bright as all but one of the varsity squad of twenty players will return next year. Another very encouraging factor will be the addition of several hard-working freshmen who have already proved their ability by defeating members of the varsity squad.
